FIFTIETH DAY

HALL OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
TOPEKA, KS, Thursday, March 23, 2023, 11:00 a.m.

The House met pursuant to adjournment with Speaker pro tem Carpenter in the chair.

The roll was called with 123 members present.

Rep. Poetter Parshall was excused on verified illness.

Rep. Vaughn was excused on excused absence by the Speaker.

Excused later: Rep. C. Smith.

Prayer by Dr. L.D. Holmes, Pastor, Wanamaker Woods Church of the Nazarene, Topeka:

Dear Father, We come before you today with a spirit of purpose and steadfastness. We thank you for these leaders you have placed in positions of authority and responsibility. Their task is difficult at times. We ask that You grant them the wisdom and strength to navigate through these times of debate and decision making.

We pray for their ability to work together, to find common ground, and to put the needs of the people they serve above their personal interests. Help them to listen to one another with open hearts and minds, and to approach each issue with respect and understanding.

Grant them the courage to make difficult decisions, even when those decisions may be unpopular. Help them to remain steadfast in their commitment to justice, fairness and the common good.

We also pray for their health and well being. For those separated from their families and loved ones because of their assignment, we would ask You to come alongside them and remind them they are loved and appreciated for their sacrifice.

The burdens these representatives carry can at times be heavy, and we ask that You give them the strength to carry on, as well as to find moments of rest and rejuvenation.

We would be remiss in not lifting our Chaplain Eunice Brubaker to You and ask for Your presence to be very near her as she fights this cancer which is attacking her body. May Your strength and healing power pour into her body and spirit.

Finally we ask that You remind these gathered here of the importance of their work and the impact they have on the lives of so many. May they be inspired by their sense of duty and service, and may their efforts be blessed with success.

We offer these prayers in the mighty name of the One who loves and cares and gave His life for each of us. Amen

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Rep. Vic Miller.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Reps. Dodson and Carlin are spread upon the Journal:

We are here today to recognize the Manhattan Football team's championship season, culminating in being crowned Kansas State Champions for Division 6A. The team had 13 wins and no losses, with 8 regular season wins and a challenging 5 game playoff run.

One of the most important lessons we learn is the value to teamwork. This is usually well recognized in sports but is equally true in most competitive environments in life. I know teamwork is critical in the military. Each team member must rely on the actions of another and the really great teams have developed an innate sense of how each team member will react.

These teammates that have come together to form this team have known each other for a long time, have competed together and have been together both on and off the field.

These coaches have led them through rigorous training and have provided emotional strengths. Their parents and supporters have given them strength. This is how a great team is built and what it takes to achieve victory over other very high-quality teams.

The people of Kansas are very proud of your accomplishments and of your sportsmanship. You have established a lasting legacy for yourselves, your school and your community. The entire membership of the Kansas House extends its pride in your significant achievement.

The players and coaches who joined Reps. Carlin and Dodson on the floor were recognized and presented with a framed House certificate in honor of their great accomplishments.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Essex are spread upon the Journal:

Rep. Essex was joined on the floor by fellow Representatives from the Olathe delegation.

Today we are joined by 4 remarkable leaders in our Olathe Chamber of Commerce.

- Tim McKee, CEO
- Oscar Healy, Board Chair
- Susie Carson, Vice President, Membership and Investments
- Jim Bradford, Director of Communications

We are excited to celebrate with you today. The Olathe Chamber was incorporated on March 23, 1923 with just 132 members that year. Olathe and the Chamber have grown a lot since then. Now we're a town of more than 151,000 people with the Chamber now at more than 1,200 members. Today we celebrate their 100th anniversary!

The Olathe Chamber of Commerce has a 5 star accreditation from the U.S. Chamber. They are the largest Chamber in Johnson County and the 2nd largest in the KC area. Smart Asset ranked Olathe as one of the safest and most livable mid-sized cities in the U.S. Military Times ranked Olathe among the top places for veterans to live. USA Today ranked Olathe as one of the 50 best cities to live in. The Olathe Chamber of Commerce is the connector, the advocate, and the voice that makes Olathe an award winning city. It is evident as you see businesses booming, the housing market soaring and the skyline of our downtown rapidly changing.

Over the last 4 years, The Olathe Chamber's Economic Development Council has:

- Helped bring in and retain nearly 6000 jobs,
- Created more than 3.7 million square feet of new or existing space,
- Brought in a total investment of more than $630 million dollars

Olathe is setting economic development records and the best is yet to come.

This is one of the many reasons why we are #Olatheproud. Thank you to the Olathe Chamber for leading the way.

Please join the Olathe delegation in congratulating the Olathe Chamber of Commerce on their 100th Anniversary.

Rep. Essex presented her guests with a framed House certificate in honor of their anniversary celebration.

INTRODUCTION OF GUESTS

There being no objection, the following remarks of Rep. Thomas are spread upon the Journal:

Colleagues: As we close out “Music in our Schools” month, it is an honor to have the group behind me here, as they hold a special place in my heart, and the hearts of many other all over Kansas, and all over the country.

Since 1993, the Olathe Youth Symphony has bloomed into what few could even imagine. What started as a few brilliant minds and a wild idea while sitting around in dear Mrs. Peter’s living room, has now turned into an amazing program, allowing hundreds of students, from all walks of life, all over the Olathe School District, to have a chance to do something more with their talents.

Hard work and dedication of the directors with us here today, and the willingness to give up their own time to ensure every kid has a chance to play music in all capacities, is more than just admirable. I would use the terms heroic, and inspirational.

I cherished every rehearsal, every concert, every moment of my time in the Symphony, just as many others did, and currently do.

Today, along with many of the past and current OYSA members, who are watching this live, or sitting in the gallery with us, you deserve to be honored for your service to our schools and to our students. You have changed lives, you have made lasting impacts on so many and the state of Kansas honors you and congratulates you, as we celebrate this, the 30th anniversary of the Olathe Youth Symphony Association. Directors, please raise your hand or wave as I call your name.

Rachele Jones Danny Kaul Randy Detrick

Today also the marks another 30 year milestone...the first time I picked up a Viola at Heritage Elementary, and began playing music under the direction of Mr. Ferguson.

Starting in a tiny little room in the lower level of the school, with about 7 of us, we watched as the program grew year after year because of his dedication. Not long after that year, a bigger room was needed to house the number of students getting involved in the Orchestra.

He was more than just an orchestra director to students like myself, and many others. We did not see it back then, however, we have grown to realize it now.

In 8th grade, I was auditioning for a National Junior High Honor Choir, and practiced after school to get ready. Mr. Ferguson came into the room, listened, offered his take, and at the time, I wasn't sure why. Now I know. That was him showing his care as he did for many years, for thousands of other students. He cared for us to be successful, not only in Orchestra, in life, whatever direction we decided to go.

He took us to state competitions, on a trip to Dallas, always selflessly working to make sure we kept music alive in our hearts. I could tell so many more stories about this man if we had the time.

This year, as he heads towards retirement, realizing his amazing contributions to our schools, and more importantly to the lives of so many students, we wanted to simply say thank you. As we stand here, there are hundreds watching the live stream as we celebrate your life and how you have touched so many with your gifts. There are also folks who made the trip today to come honor you in person, and celebrate your achievements. At this time, I would invite anyone sitting in the gallery, who played music under the direction of Mr. Ferguson, to stand.

Mr. Ferguson, take in this moment, and realize while yes, students like me will take credit for some of the grey hairs, the stress, the increased blood pressure, after all you did put up with me for 8 long years. No one deserves more credit than you for providing many of us a lifetime of loving music, and the desire to make you proud.

We love you, and wish you the best in retirement. Thank you.

Rep. Thomas presented framed House certificates to the directors of the OYO and Mr. Ferguson in honor of their contribution to Olathe and the Olathe Youth Symphony.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote no on H Sub for SB 113. This bill increases spending by somewhere around 600 million over a two-year period, and it increases spending beyond what's required by the Gannon decision by somewhere around 30 million dollars. I don't believe this level of spending is going to be sustainable over the long run. Additionally, I disagree with the provision in the bill that authorizes school districts to pay school board members, and I don't believe that it's necessary to require school districts to post curriculum online. – BRETT FAIRCHILD, TREVOR JACOBS

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

MR. SPEAKER: I vote Yes on Senate Bill 106. This bill is an example of bundling of two ideas into one bill. I vote Yes solely because it is important we ban counterfeit airbags, lives are at stake. I fear, however, the second idea is one subject to discriminatory law enforcement. Whether under vehicle lights are red or pink or orange is a subjective decision which may be based more on the color of the driver's skin than the color of the lights themselves. I therefore vote Yes on Senate Bill 106 – JOHN CARMICHAEL

(a) All penalties and interest prescribed by K.S.A. 79-3228, and amendments thereto, for noncompliance with the income tax laws of Kansas shall be applicable for noncompliance with the provisions of the Kansas withholding and declaration of estimated tax act relating to withholding tax which shall be enforced in the same manner as the Kansas income tax act. A penalty at the same rate per annum prescribed by ~~subsection (b) of~~ K.S.A. 79-2968(b), and amendments thereto, for interest upon delinquent or unpaid taxes shall be applied and added to a taxpayer's amount of underpayment of estimated tax due from the date the estimated tax payment was due until the same is paid or until the 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year for which such estimated tax is a credit, whichever date is earlier, but such penalty shall not be added if the total amount thereof does not exceed $1. For purposes of this subsection, the amount of underpayment of estimated tax shall be the excess of the amount of the installment which would be required to be paid if the estimated tax were equal to 90% of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year or, if no return was filed, 90% of the tax for such year, over the amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last date prescribed for payment. Amounts due from any employer on account of withholding or from any taxpayer for estimated tax may be collected by the director in the manner provided for the collection of state income tax in K.S.A. 79-3235, and amendments thereto. For purposes of this subsection, "underpayment of tax" means the difference between the amount of tax actually paid and the amount of tax which would have been required to be paid to avoid penalty pursuant to subsection (b) or (c).

(b) No penalty or interest shall be imposed upon any individual with respect to any underpayment of any installment if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of such installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before such date if the estimated tax were whichever of the following is the least:

(1) The tax shown on the return of the individual for the preceding taxable year, if a return showing a liability for tax was filed by the individual for the preceding taxable year;

(2) zero if no return was required to be filed or if the tax liability on the individual's return was less than $200 for the preceding taxable year;

(3) an amount equal to  $66\frac{2}{3}\%$ , in the case of individuals referred to in ~~subsection (b) of K.S.A. 79-32,102(b)~~, and amendments thereto, and 90%, in the case of all other individuals, of the tax for the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis, pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the secretary of revenue, the taxable income for the months in the taxable year ending before the month in which the installment is required to be made.

(c) No penalty or interest shall be imposed upon any corporation with respect to any underpayment of any installment of estimated tax if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of such installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before such date if the estimated tax were whichever of the following is the least:

(1) The tax shown on the return of the corporation for the preceding taxable year, if a return showing a liability for tax was filed by the corporation for the preceding taxable year, or zero if no return was required to be filed, or if the tax liability on the corporation's return was less than $500 for the preceding taxable year; or

(2) (A) an amount equal to 90% of the tax for the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income:

(i) For the first three months of the taxable year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the fourth month;

(ii) for the first three months or for the first five months of the taxable year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the sixth month;

(iii) for the first six months or for the first eight months of the taxable year in the case of the installment required to be paid in the ninth month; and

(iv) for the first nine months or for the first 11 months of the taxable year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the 12th month of the taxable year.

(B) For purposes of this ~~subsection paragraph~~ (2), the taxable income shall be placed on an annualized basis by:

(i) Multiplying by 12 the taxable income referred to in ~~subsection (2)(A), subparagraph (A)~~; and

(ii) dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year (three, five, six, eight, nine, or 11, as the case may be) referred to in ~~subsection (2)(A), subparagraph (A)~~.

(d) If the employer, in violation of the provisions of this act, fails to deduct and withhold under this chapter, and thereafter the tax against which such withholding may be credited is paid, the amount otherwise required to be deducted and withheld shall not be collected from the employer. This subsection shall in no case relieve the employer from liability for any penalties or additions to the tax otherwise applicable in respect of such failure to deduct and withhold.

(e) Any person required to collect, truthfully account for, and pay over any tax imposed by this act, who willfully fails to collect such tax, or truthfully account for and pay over such tax, or willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any such tax or the payment thereof, shall in addition to the other penalties of this section be liable to a penalty equal to the total amount of the tax evaded, or not collected, or not accounted for and paid over. As used in this section, "willfully" has the same meaning as such term has for federal tax purposes in 26 U.S.C. § 6672.

(f)(1) In case of failure by any employer required by ~~subsection (b)~~ of K.S.A. 79-3298(b), and amendments thereto, to remit any amount of withheld taxes by the date prescribed therefor, unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause and not due to willful neglect, there shall be imposed upon such person a penalty of ~~15%~~ of the amount of the underpayment:

- (A) 2% of the amount of the underpayment if remitted within one to five days;
- (B) 5% of the amount of the underpayment if remitted within six to 15 days;
- (C) 10% of the amount of the underpayment if remitted after 15 days; and
- (D) 15% of the amount of the underpayment if remitted after 15 days and the department has issued a notice to the person regarding the underpayment but the amount of the underpayment was not remitted within 10 days of issuance of the notice.

(2) For purposes of this subsection, the term "underpayment" means the excess of the amount of the tax required to be withheld and remitted over the amount, if any, remitted on or before the date prescribed therefor. The failure to remit for any withholding period shall be deemed not to continue beyond the last date prescribed for filing the annual return as required by ~~subsection (d)~~ of K.S.A. 79-3298(d), and amendments thereto. Penalty and interest as prescribed by K.S.A. 79-3228, and amendments thereto, shall not begin to accrue under subsection (a) ~~of this section~~ on the amount of any such underpayment until the due date of the annual return for the calendar year in which such failure to remit occurs.

(g) Whenever the secretary or the secretary's designee determines that the failure of the taxpayer to comply with the provisions of subsections (a), (e); or (f) ~~of this section~~ was due to reasonable causes, the secretary or the secretary's designee may waive or reduce any of ~~said such~~ penalties and may reduce the interest rate to the underpayment rate prescribed and determined for the applicable period under section 6621 of the federal internal revenue code as in effect on January 1, 1994, upon making a record of the reasons therefor.";
