

Journal of the Senate

FORTY-SIXTH DAY

SENATE CHAMBER, TOPEKA, KANSAS
Thursday, March 14, 2024, 2:30 p.m.

The Senate was called to order by President Ty Masterson.

The roll was called with 40 senators present.

The President introduced Pastor Jacob Heine, Faith Lutheran Church, Topeka, to deliver the invocation:

Jesus called His disciples over and said to them, “You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those in high positions act as tyrants over them. But it is not so among you. On the contrary, whoever wants to become great among you will be your servant, and whoever wants to be first among you will be a slave to all. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.” Mark 10:42-45

Heavenly Father, you remind us that our role in this world is one of service. You have called us to imitate your Son, Jesus, who came not to be served but to serve. Forgive us for the times we have sought to have a place of honor rather than a place of service. Forgive us for the times when we have forgotten that you have placed us here to serve all people, not to be beholden to any one group or special interest.

As your servants, I ask that you would guide this government to do what is best for all people, regardless of their affinity or agenda. I ask you to help them to turn to you to ask what is best and not to look to themselves for personal thoughts and desires on what is best, so that none here would begin to lord over others their own agenda and purpose. I ask that you would guide each member of this chamber to seek your agenda and your purpose for the great state of Kansas. Give to each your heart of service, for in serving our neighbor we are able to truly see your greatness.

Above all, O Lord, I ask that you would guide all hearts in this chamber, and throughout this great state, to once again come in humble submission before you, so that we would see all people, regardless of race, gender, or creed as those you love and therefore worthy of our love. In Jesus name, Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance was led by President Masterson.

(d) The following procedures are to be used in administering the exemption as provided in this section:

(1) A sale of eligible property under a layaway sale qualifies for exemption if:

(A) Final payment on a layaway order is made by, and the property is given to, the purchaser during the exemption period; or

(B) the purchaser selects the property and the retailer accepts the order for the item during the exemption period for immediate delivery upon full payment, even if delivery is made after the exemption period.

(2) There shall be no change during the period of exemption for the handling of a bundled sale as treated for sales tax purposes at times other than the exemption period.

(3) A discount by the seller reduces the sales price of the property, and the discounted sales price determines whether the sales price is within the price threshold provided in subsection (a). A coupon that reduces the sales price is treated as a discount if the seller is not reimbursed for the coupon amount by a third party. If a discount applies to the total amount paid by a purchaser rather than to the sales price of a particular item and the purchaser has purchased both eligible property and taxable property, the seller shall allocate the discount based on the total sales prices of the taxable property compared to the total sales prices of all property sold in that same transaction.

(4) Articles that are normally sold as a single unit must continue to be sold in that manner. Such articles cannot be priced separately and sold as individual items in order to obtain the exemption.

(5) Eligible property that customers purchase during the exemption period with use of a rain check will qualify for the exemption regardless of when the rain check was issued. Issuance of a rain check during the exemption period shall not qualify eligible property for the exemption if the property is actually purchased after the exemption period.

(6) The procedure for an exchange in regards to an exemption is as follows:

(A) If a customer purchases an item of eligible property during the exemption period but later exchanges the item for a similar eligible item, even if a different size, different color or other feature, no additional tax is due even if the exchange is made after the exemption period;

(B) if a customer purchases an item of eligible property during the exemption period, but after the exemption period has ended the customer returns the item and receives credit on the purchase of a different item, the appropriate sales tax is due on the sale of the new item; and

(C) if a customer purchases an item of eligible property before the exemption period, but during the exemption period the customer returns the item and receives credit on the purchase of a different item of eligible property, no sales tax is due on the sale of the new item if the new item is purchased during the exemption period.

(7) For the purpose of an exemption, eligible property qualifies for the exemption if:

(A) The item is both delivered to and paid for by the customer during the exemption period; or

(B) the customer orders and pays for the item and the seller accepts the order during the exemption period for immediate shipment, even if delivery is made after the exemption period. For purposes of this subparagraph, the seller accepts an order when the seller has taken action to fill the order for immediate shipment. Actions to fill an order include placement of an "in date" stamp on a mail order or assignment of an order number to a telephone order. For purposes of this subparagraph, an order is for immediate shipment when the customer does not request delayed shipment. An order is for immediate shipment notwithstanding that the shipment may be delayed because of a backlog of orders or because stock is currently unavailable to, or on back order by, the seller.

(8) For a 60-day period immediately after the exemption period, when a customer returns an item that would qualify for the exemption, no credit for or refund of sales tax shall be given unless the customer provides a receipt or invoice that shows tax was paid or the seller has sufficient documentation to show that tax was paid on the specific item. The 60-day period is set solely for the purpose of designating a time period during which the customer must provide documentation that shows that sales tax was paid on returned merchandise. The 60-day period is not intended to change a seller's policy on the time period during which the seller will accept returns.

(9) The time zone of the seller's location determines the authorized time period for a sales tax holiday when the purchaser is located in one time zone and a seller is located in another.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I offered this Amendment and obviously Vote "AYE" on the same. If it had passed, the Amendment would simply allow any County, if it so chose, to put before its' respective voters an Earnings tax of from 1-1.5% which, when collected, would be applied to property tax reductions in the enacting County. Taken from the successful model of Missouri's enabling legislation, Kansas City (MO) and St. Louis (MO) have implemented and prospered from Earnings taxes for decades; overwhelmingly renewed by their respective County's voters on ballots held every ten years. For example, Wyandotte County, MY County, would put the ballot question out to our people and, recognizing that only 30% of our employee work force actually resides in Wyandotte County (70% of the people who work in Wyandotte County are just "day-timers;" come to earn by day and leave the County at night. The denial of this Amendment's adoption deprives Counties like mine, and perhaps yours, the ability to put before their people an opportunity to drastically reduce escalating real property tax bills by supplementing County revenues with a percent or more of all employment income earned in the County; the "host-site" which has infrastructure and public service needs to have met that all employees who work there need and benefit from. I vote "AYE" and hope one day that upon further study and reflection that a majority of our Legislature will join me in providing this economic parity tool option for our constituencies.—DAVID HALEY

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I vote "NO" on SB 514. Giving $28 million to the organizers of the 2026 World Cup Games in Kansas City is yet another sorry example of the Kansas Statehouse once again shoveling so-called "economic development incentives" to the special interests while critical needs of our Kansas citizens go unfilled.—TOM HOLLAND

Senator Straub requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Holland on SB 514.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

SB 311 seeks to reverse the Kansas Supreme Court's decision to reject the "dark store" theory of valuing commercial property. If SB 311 becomes law, millions of dollars in property tax revenue generated from commercial properties will disappear. This would significantly shift the property tax burden to residential homeowners, simply to benefit large commercial enterprises that are often owned by companies from outside Kansas. There was no hearing on this portion of SB 311, which was added to the bill just yesterday. Therefore, there's no fiscal note on the devastating impact this will have on all levels of Kansas government, and there was no chance for any parties to weigh in on this legislation.—ETHAN CORSON

Senators Francisco, Haley, Pettey and Ware request the record to show they concur with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Corson on SB 311.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

Having voted to “Pass” on affirmation or denial of this long-debated, and pondered, tax bill, a Call of the Senate compelling me to “choose” will now produce a “no” on this bill; a reluctant “no” though at that. As this bill continues to make its way through the process; no doubt to a Governor’s veto and back, my consternation for immediate and significant tax-relief for ALL Kansans remains paramount. With all deliberate speed, we should cut social-security taxes, deduct the first $100,000 in residential appraisal from taxation, accelerate the food sales and change the income exemptions immediately. The devil in the details of an inequitable single rate (or “flat-tax”) equation should be resolved from the 5.7 to, arguably, a 6.25% or better for my solid support; along with significant exemptions for middle-income earners as opposed to the practically non-measurable ones there in SB 539 now. Rumor has it I actually voted For this measure today. I contend I voted Against it today; albeit ambiguously, reluctantly, merely compelled to.—DAVID HALEY

The idea that changing the structure of our tax system from three tiers to one tier gives inherent advantage is a fallacy in my mind; similar tax certainty can be had with the current three tier system. The current posture of SB 539 is an attempt to replicate our current limited progressive tax structure using exemptions combined with a higher flat rate with decreasing yearly rates that appear to give the most benefits to the most wealthy. There was a compromise offered that gave significant tax cuts on property, social security, food and even income tax. This body can come up with a compromise that meets the needs of our citizens by continuing to work together and not deal with absolutes. I vote "NO" on SB 539.—JEFF PITTMAN

Senator Francisco requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pittman on SB 539.

S Sub HB 2036, AN ACT concerning sales taxation; relating to exemptions; providing an exemption for certain purchases by disabled veterans of the armed forces of the United States.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 38; Nays 2; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Alley, Baumgardner, Billinger, Blasi, Bowers, Claeys, Corson, Dietrich, Doll, Erickson, Fagg, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Gossage, Haley, Holland, Holscher, Kerschen, Kloos, Longbine, Masterson, O'Shea, Olson, Peck, Petersen, Pettey, Pittman, Pyle, Reddi, Ryckman, Shallenburger, Straub, Sykes, Thompson, Tyson, Ware, Warren, Wilborn.

Nays: McGinn, Steffen.

The substitute bill passed.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

S Sub HB 2036 is a win for our disabled veterans. I was proud to be a bipartisan co-sponsor on the original bill SB 58 giving critical sales tax exemptions on key goods. Sales tax cuts help the most needed. With that said, there still needs to be done to help this same group with property tax relief, as we have potentially done on with the current amendments we did this evening on HB 2465 and more. I vote "AYE."—JEFF PITTMAN

I voted "YES" on S Sub HB 2036 because it provides sales tax relief for disabled veterans, however HB 2036 passed in the House with a 123-1 vote which exempts property taxes for disabled veterans. My constituents include Fort Riley, military families, and disabled veterans. I received an overwhelming number of emails to support HB 2036 for property tax relief, instead with the "gut and go" element of legislation the bill was replaced with another bill. The process creates confusion and is deceptive to the public.—USHA REDDI

HB 2465, AN ACT concerning taxation; relating to the salt parity act; clarifying the determination of taxable income of an electing pass-through entity; providing for the passing through of tax credits to electing pass-through entity owners; relating to Kansas adjusted gross income; providing subtraction modifications for certain federal credit disallowances and the employee retention credit disallowance and to permit the carryforward of certain net operating losses; clarifying the disallowed business interest expense deduction; excluding social security payments from household income and increasing the appraised value threshold for eligibility of seniors and disabled veterans related to increased property tax claims; citing the section as the golden years homestead property tax freeze program; amending K.S.A. 2023 Supp. 79-32,117, 79-32,284, 79-32,287 and 79-4508a and repealing the existing sections.

On roll call, the vote was: Yeas 38; Nays 2; Present and Passing 0; Absent or Not Voting 0.

Yeas: Alley, Baumgardner, Billinger, Blasi, Bowers, Claeys, Corson, Dietrich, Doll, Erickson, Fagg, Faust-Goudeau, Francisco, Gossage, Haley, Holland, Holscher, Kerschen, Kloos, Longbine, Masterson, O'Shea, Peck, Petersen, Pettey, Pittman, Pyle, Reddi, Ryckman, Shallenburger, Steffen, Straub, Sykes, Thompson, Tyson, Ware, Warren, Wilborn.

Nays: McGinn, Olson.

The bill passed, as amended.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I appreciate the amendments we have made to HB 2465, increasing the number of disabled veterans who will be able to realize property tax relief by increasing the eligibility income and property tax limits for tax freezes. I vote "AYE."—JEFF PITTMAN

Senator Francisco requests the record to show she concurs with the "Explanation of Vote" offered by Senator Pittman on HB 2465.
