

50-704. Obsolete information. (a) Except as authorized under subsection (b) of this section, no consumer reporting agency may make any consumer report containing any of the following items of information:

- (1) Bankruptcies which, from date of adjudication of the most recent bankruptcy, antedate the report by more than fourteen (14) years;
- (2) suits and judgments which, from date of entry, antedate the report by more than seven (7) years or until the governing statute of limitations has expired, whichever is the longer period;
- (3) paid tax liens which, from date of payment, antedate the report by more than seven (7) years;
- (4) accounts placed for collection or charged to profit and loss which antedate the report by more than seven (7) years;
- (5) records of arrest, indictment, or conviction of crime which, from date of disposition, release, or parole, antedate the report by more than seven (7) years; and
- (6) any other adverse item of information which antedates the report by more than seven (7) years.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) of this section are not applicable in the case of any consumer credit report to be used in connection with

- (1) a credit transaction involving, or which may reasonably be expected to involve, a principal amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more;
- (2) the underwriting of life insurance involving, or which may reasonably be expected to involve, a face amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more; or
- (3) the employment of any individual at an annual salary which equals, or which may reasonably be expected to equal twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), or more.
