

72-4453. Agreements for transferability of courses and programs; approval; criteria. (a) The board of trustees of every community college and the governing board of every technical college and the institute of technology shall make and enter into agreements providing the transferability of substantially equivalent courses of study and programs which are offered at such educational institutions in order to facilitate the articulation of students to and among such educational institutions.

(b) The following conditions shall apply to the agreements required under subsection (a):

(1) The state board of regents shall be notified of the agreement at the time the agreement is executed; and
(2) the agreement shall be effective only after approval by the state board of regents.

(c) The state board of regents shall prescribe criteria or guidelines for the purpose of determining which courses of study and programs offered in the technical colleges and the institute of technology are: (1) Substantially equivalent to courses of study and programs offered in the community colleges; and (2) transferable to the community colleges.
