

79-2706. Lease of real estate bid in by county; period of lease. Where real estate is foreclosed and sold for taxes, and bid in at such foreclosure sale for the county and the board of county commissioners have been unable to sell the same for a price which they deem adequate, the board of county commissioners may lease such real estate for a period of not to exceed one year, and may continue to so lease the same until the board of county commissioners shall sell the same.

History: L. 1941, ch. 375, § 30; Sept. 1.