

2018 Kansas Statutes

65-5910. Licensure of person licensed in another state. The secretary may license, without examination, any person who is duly licensed in another state if the standards for licensure in such other state are not less than the standards for licensure under this act.

History: L. 1988, ch. 228, § 10; July 1.