

2021 Kansas Statutes

39-1905. Kansas department for aging and disability services; references to the Kansas department for children and families; powers duties, functions, rules and regulations, orders and directives transferred; organization of programs by secretary. (a) Whenever the Kansas department for children and families, the secretary for children and families, or words of like effect, is referred to or designated by a statute, contract or other document and such reference is in regard to any of the powers, duties or functions transferred to the Kansas department for aging and disability services from the Kansas department for children and families by K.S.A. 39-1901 through 39-1914, and amendments thereto, such reference or designation shall be deemed to apply to the Kansas department for aging and disability services or the secretary for aging and disability services.

(b) All rules and regulations, orders and directives of the Kansas department for children and families, or the secretary for children and families, or words of like effect, which relate to the functions transferred by K.S.A. 39-1901 through 39-1914, and amendments thereto, and which are in effect on the effective date of K.S.A. 39-1901 through 39-1914, and amendments thereto, shall continue to be effective and shall be deemed to be rules and regulations, orders and directives of the Kansas department for aging and disability services and the secretary for aging and disability services until revised, amended, revoked or nullified pursuant to law.

(c) The secretary for aging and disability services shall determine the manner in which disability and behavioral health programs are organized within the Kansas department for aging and disability services.

(d) The secretary for aging and disability services shall determine the manner in which programs provided by the institutions, as defined by subsection (b) of K.S.A. 76-12a01, and amendments thereto, are organized within the Kansas department for aging and disability services.
