

2021 Kansas Statutes

60-519. Suits stayed by injunction. Whenever the commencement of any action shall be stayed by an injunction of any court, the time during which such injunction shall be in force shall not be deemed any portion of the time limit for the commencement of such action.

History: L. 1963, ch. 303, 60-519; Jan. 1, 1964.